

Mike,

I will not be using eLegal to announce when your office files its response. The Web sites will have to suffice.

Hi Pat

I'll make sure you get a copy of our response.
When we file the response will you be sending an e-legal notice such as the one that went out when the Bar filed its documents? (attached)

Thanks

Mike,

Thank you for suggesting that we post the Republic editorial on our Web site, but we'll pass on that idea. We will, however, post your response once it has been filed with the Court. By the way, I did receive a call from someone who was attempting to print your petition off of our Web site. The document cannot be printed, copied or edited. I forwarded the caller to you so you could assist her.

Pat

Hi Pat

Thanks for the clean copy of the response.

I have sent it to our web master and it will be posted on our web page. I'll keep you posted on our progress.

As Mr. McAuliffe's Op Ed is on your web site, I am sending you a copy of the Republic editorial on which the Op Ed is based. I would hope that it finds its way to your web site as well.

Thanks again

Mike,

Here is a PDF of the response as you requested. Our Web Services Department will upload your clean copy.

Hi Pat

Our web page on this is still under construction.
As it stands we have not posted our material.
As soon as we post our own material we will post yours as well.

Do you have a PDF of the response that you can send me? You may have a cleaner copy at the source.

I went to the Bar site, the affidavits are much clearer but it looks as if the old petition is still up. I'm resending the clean copy.

Thanks again

Mike,

The petition and affidavits were both updated on our Web sites. When can we expect to see our response posted on your site?

Pat

Here are the affidavits.

Our staff was able to produce clearer copies that utilize a smaller file size for easier e-mailing.

Thanks
